YOUR OWN PRIVATE LUBERON LE GALINIER

IN A WORD

Facing the majesty of the Grand Luberon, an 18th-century country house stands behind its enclosure, embraced by a landscaped park. It's a universe in itself, where guesthouses and holiday homes invite you to savor every moment with eyes wide open. Around a game of pétanque, against the backdrop of lush gardens; at the table, where the flavors of the south are shared in every dish; by the pool, bathed in sunlight; or in your apartment, adorned with a rustic bouquet... It's an intimate dialogue between you and an idealized Provence.

Simplicity is expressed through centuries-old stones, weathered terracotta tiles, whitewashed beams... Time leaves its mark, as does shadow and light. On the floors, the walls, and even on the sofas, these contrasts punctuate your days, your desires to wander, or perhaps to meditate.

At Le Galinier, a multitude of pleasures await you. As many joys as there are «destinations on site,» in reality. Sparkling pool, gardens ideal for pilates and yoga sessions, pétanque court for convivial moments, trails to explore... Every corner nurtures your emotions and weaves memories. So, smile, because you are here, and nowhere else.

ÉRIC DARDE

«The Galinier is an 18th-century Provencal country house, now a guesthouse. Here, you'll rediscover the forgotten Provence, its craftsmanship, cuisine, literature, and art that enrich the region. In an authenticity free from all clichés, one relaxes here sheltered from the bustle of the village, facing the Petit Luberon. The Galinier is an ode to suspended time.»

DESIGN

Le Galinier, blessed by its geographical location and its architectural, landscaped, and cultural heritage, presents itself as a true gem. With a natural strength emanating from every corner, it hardly needs artifice to charm. Simply put, it is you who complete this already perfect picture.

In the spaces of Le Galinier, whether they be rooms, apartments, duplexes, or villas, one feels at home. Amidst plays of light, breathtaking views of preserved landscapes, and Provencal furnishings, they warmly welcome you. Welcome to «your» Luberon.

The green spaces of Le Galinier, whether manicured or wild, blooming or verdant, trace unique landscapes inspired by ancient garden designs. They serve as starting points for new adventures to be shared and felt.

The thick walls and weathered floors of the 18th-century bastide and its outbuildings bear witness to a bygone Provence, where moments of joy and relaxation were already intertwined. No need for extravagance; everything is already here.

The cultures of Le Galinier manifest not only through its architecture but also through each room filled with books, everyday objects, and carefully selected artworks, fostering a strong connection with the region. Let yourself be carried away by this atmosphere; you will inevitably find yourself here.

GASTRONOMY

Breakfasts at Le Galinier are an ode to local flavors: crispy pastries, freshly squeezed fruit juices, and jams made with fruits from the region. It's the perfect start to the day in a warm and friendly atmosphere.

Chef Johanna Solal's summer residency at Le Galinier is a true sanctuary where the gastronomic delights of the bastide flourish. For this second edition, following last year's Mina Kande and Minou Sabahi, Johanna Solal will be in residence until September 1st, from Wednesday to Sunday, 7 PM to 9 PM. During this period, in this culinary creation space, Provençal heritage is expressed with remarkable authenticity. In perfect harmony with the seasons and local products, the chef crafts dishes that celebrate the richness of the terroir. Freshly picked aromatic herbs, sun-drenched vegetables, flavorful fruits, and seafood inspire a cuisine rooted in tradition yet infused with innovation.

This gastronomic experience is curated in collaboration with BAÏTA, a collective of chefs and artisans committed to unique culinary experiences. Beaumier and BAÏTA join forces to create a project open to the village of Lourmarin and anchored in the Luberon region.

Each meal becomes a unique experience, where the simplicity of ingredients blends with contemporary culinary techniques to elevate flavors. Whether it's a refined dinner under the stars or a spontaneous aperitif among friends, every gastronomic moment at Le Galinier is imbued with the magic and generosity of Provence. The chef takes pride in making each dish a true culinary masterpiece, reflecting both the past and present of this sunny region.

LOCAL

Sagebrush tinged with grey-green, dry stone walls, avenues lined with lace-like cypress trees, scorching sun, icy rivers... The authenticity of the Luberon reveals itself at every turn. In the heart of its villages, especially in Lourmarin, weathered facades, stray cats, the Friday market, artist galleries, and bustling alleyways bear witness to real life.

The Beumier Group currently operates ten hotels in Europe.

BEAUMIER

Far from postcards and international standards, Beumier departs from each of its destinations with a green approach to rewrite a tailor-made story, full of relevance, with the help of a collective of enthusiasts. Each hotel transports its guests into its immediate environment. From the snowy peaks of the French or Swiss Alps to the sunny shores of the Mediterranean, and through the beauty of Provence, Beumier outlines the contours of a sensitive luxury, blending a quest for authenticity, deep hospitality, and ethics.
